

PACE VOTES 2013—INFORMATION

ELECTION INFO

Have questions about registering to vote, absentee ballots, finding your polling place, eligibility requirements, the voting process, or anything else related to making sure your vote counts in this year's election? These sites are here to help!

NON-PARTISAN* INFO

These sites are great sources of unbiased information about your candidates in this year's election and their stances on the issues you care about.

POTENTIALLY PARTISAN INFO

Newspapers like the Huffington Post and the New York Times are some of the most up-to-date sources of updates and information about the election, as well as opinions about the candidates and issues.

CHOOSE YOUR PARTY

(Or don't!) - Choosing a party is optional, but if you're interested in learning more about the 6 parties on the NYC ballot, check out their official websites for a good look at what they stand for. These are the New York State party sites, but parties vary by location, so do a little digging to find the best site for you.
